

Happy Holidays from our attorneys & staff!

The Coye Law Firm went through some exciting changes in 2010. We hope this year was good to our clients and colleagues as well.

Our staff began the year in our temporary location on Edgewater Drive. When the hottest days of summer were here, we began our move back to the new office building on 730 Vassar Street. This is where the original office was located, but now a new brick three-story building stands in its place. Now that it's been a few months, we're settled nicely and enjoying the new open workspace. If you haven't seen the office in person, check out the pictures below!

This September, we welcomed Salim Punjani and Nanette Cruz as new attorneys at the Coye Law Firm. Salim earned his undergraduate degree in Psychology from Emory University, and then proceeded to Barry University's Dwayne O. Andreas School of Law. Nanette attended the University of Central Florida for her degree in Legal Studies. For law school, she enrolled in Florida A&M University's program. You can read more about them by scrolling down or visiting our attorney profiles page at coylaw.com.

Daniel Smith, a workers compensation and disability attorney, was made shareholder and partner in the Coye Law Firm in mid-November. Dan started at the firm as an intern back in 2000. As he went through college and law school, his position changed from intern to litigation case manager to attorney. Mr. Smith graduated first in his class from the University of Central Florida and received his law degree at the University of Florida, where he graduated magna cum laude and became a member of the Order of the Coif. He is a valuable member of our team and we congratulate him on this achievement!

As 2011 approaches, we continue working on new projects and ways to provide valuable legal advice to our clients and friends. Check out our profiles on Facebook, YouTube, and Twitter to get weekly updates. You can find articles, blog posts, instructional videos, and other content that you may find valuable in the course of your personal injury, workers' compensation, disability, or other type of legal claim.

The Coye Law Firm is a full-service firm that helps people with many different types of legal matters. If you find that you may need legal guidance, don't hesitate to call our office at 407-648-4940 or 800-648-4941.

Have a happy holiday season and a prosperous new year!

Sincerely,

Client Relations at the Coye Law Firm

We've moved into our new office. Come visit us at 730 Vassar Street!

Welcome back and Congratulations, Salim and Nanette!

We're proud to congratulate Salim and Nanette on successfully passing the Florida Bar entrance exam. They are now licensed to practice law in the state and are attorneys at the Coye Law Firm.

Nanette was sworn in on September 21st by the Honorable Hubert Grimes, Circuit Judge of the 7th Judicial Circuit. Salim was sworn in by the Honorable Jose. R. Rodriguez, Circuit Judge of the 9th Circuit, on September 24th.

Salim continues to be a valuable member of the workers' compensation department, but has also taken on Social Security and veteran's disability claims. Nanette's previous successes in personal injury cases prepared her to help more clients in her role as a lawyer. She may also begin working on transactional and hourly cases.
